Historical, Systematic-Theological, Practical-Theological, and Spiritual Perspectives

Discussion of ongoing research projects

Prof. Dr Angela Berlis &
Dr Rebecca Giselsbrecht

University of Bern

November 26–28, 2026

Beginning Thursday, November 26, at 2:15 p.m.
until Saturday, November 28, 1:00 p.m.

Unitobler, Länggassstr. 51,
Raum 206

On November 26, we will begin with a discussion on the process of academic writing (dissertations, scholarly articles, publishing). On November 27, 2026, we will present ongoing research projects on the history and theology of Old Catholicism; on November 28, we will present research projects from other theological fields (such as ecumenical theology or Church History in general).

Among the invited experts is Professor Dr Mark Chapman (Oxford).

Participation is possible upon registration.

Anyone wishing to present a research project should send a title and an abstract of up to 200 words to angela.berlis@unibe.ch by October 15, 2026. You will receive notification of acceptance by October 25.

For out-of-town participants presenting at the colloquium, travel expenses and, if applicable, accommodation costs may be covered upon prior consultation.
