

Lecturer in modern Hebrew (Ivrit): 6 weekly lessons per year

The Institute of Jewish Studies is seeking to fill an open position as lecturer in modern Hebrew beginning in the spring semester 2020. The position includes teaching Ivrit I-III: 2 weekly lessons in the spring, 4 weekly lessons in the fall semester. The appointment is for a three-year period. The Institute of Jewish Studies in Bern has been continuously expanding and is enjoying increasing interest from students, specifically the language courses.

We expect:

- Excellent command of modern Hebrew
- Master degree in Hebrew, Jewish Studies or related field
- Teaching experience at university level

We offer:

- Work in a small, dedicated team
- Personal and academic supervision
- Employment conditions according to cantonal guidelines

The University of Bern is an equal opportunity employer and encourages women and people with disabilities to apply. Please submit your application (statement of motivation, CV, diplomas) in electronic form (PDF) by November 8, 2019 to rene.bloch@theol.unibe.ch. For more information please consult the institute homepage www.judaistik.unibe.ch or contact Prof. Dr. René Bloch.